If the Company is required to obtain appraisal reports from two or more professional appraisers, the different professional appraisers or appraisal officers may not be related parties or de facto related parties of each other.
Article 5:	The procedures for the assessment, determination of transaction terms and conditions, and price of acquiring or disposing of assets by the Company shall be in accordance with the following requirements: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Transactions relating to short-term securities investments and derivatives, which are mentioned in Article 1, should be evaluated and executed by the financial department; long-term securities investment should be assessed by the Company's President Office ("President Office") and executed by the financial department after the approval; except for the foresaid assets, the other asset transactions should be assessed by the

	Company's President Office and executed by the related departments after the approval. 2. The price of transactions described in the preceding paragraph, except which are traded in the stock exchange or securities brokerage firms, shall be determined via public bidding, price bidding, or price negotiation based on reference to the market conditions.
Article 6:	Where an acquisition or disposition of assets of the Company shall be approved by the Board of Directors according to the Procedures or other relevant laws, the independent directors' opinions specifically expressing dissent or reservations about any matter shall be included in the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting. A major asset transaction or a major derivatives transaction shall be approved by more than half of all audit committee members and submitted to the Board of Directors for a resolution. If approval of more than half of all audit committee members is not obtained, the procedures may be implemented if approved by more than two-thirds of all Directors, and the resolution of the Audit Committee shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting.
Chapter 2 Acquisition or Disposal of Assets
Article 7:	In acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment, or right-of-use assets thereof where the transaction amount reaches 20 percent of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the Company, unless transacting with a domestic government institution, engaging others to build on its own land, engaging others to build on rented land, or acquiring or disposing of equipment or right-of-use assets thereof for business use, shall obtain an appraisal report prior to the date of occurrence of the event from a professional appraiser and shall further comply with the following provisions: 1. Where due to special circumstances it is necessary to give a limited price, specified price, or special price as a reference basis for the transaction

	price, the transaction shall be proposed for approval in advance by the Board of Directors; the same procedure shall also be followed for any subsequent changes to the terms and conditions of the transaction. 2. Where the transaction amount is NT$1 billion or more, appraisals from two or more professional appraisers shall be obtained. 3. Where any one of the following circumstances applies with respect to the professional appraiser's appraisal results, unless all the appraisal results for the assets to be acquired are higher than the transaction amount, or all the appraisal results for the assets to be disposed of are lower than the transaction amount, a certified public accountant shall be engaged to perform the appraisal in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the Accounting Research and Development Foundation of Republic of China (ARDF) and render a specific opinion regarding the reason for the discrepancy and the appropriateness of the transaction price: (1) The discrepancy between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is 20 percent or more of the transaction amount. (2) The discrepancy between the appraisal results of two or more professional appraisers is 10 percent or more of the transaction amount. 4. No more than 3 months may elapse between the date of the appraisal report issued by a professional appraiser and the contract execution date; provided, where the publicly announced current value for the same period is used and not more than 6 months have elapsed, an opinion may still be issued by the original professional appraiser.
Article 8:	The Company acquiring or disposing of securities shall, prior to the date of occurrence of the event, obtain financial statements of the issuing company for the most recent period, certified or reviewed by a certified public accountant, for reference in appraising the transaction price, and if the dollar amount of the transaction is 20 percent of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the Company shall additionally engage a certified

	public accountant prior to the date of occurrence of the event to provide an opinion regarding the reasonableness of the transaction price. If the CPA needs to use the report of an expert as evidence, the CPA shall do so in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the ARDF. This requirement does not apply, however, to publicly quoted prices of securities that have an active market, or where otherwise provided by regulations of the securities competent authority.
Article 9:	In acquiring or disposing of intangible assets or right-of-use assets thereof or membership cards where the transaction amount reaches 20 percent or more of the company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or more, the Company, unless transacting with a domestic government institution, shall obtain a CPA's opinion on the reasonableness of the transaction price prior to the date of occurrence of the event. The CPA shall comply with the provisions of Statement of Auditing Standards No. 20 published by the Accounting Research and Development Foundation.
Article 10:	The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in the preceding three articles shall be done in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 28, herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items for which an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion has been obtained need not be counted toward the transaction amount.
Article 11:	Where the Company acquires or disposes of assets through court auction procedures, the evidentiary documentation issued by the court may be substituted for the appraisal report or CPA opinion.
Article 12:	Where the Company acquires or disposes of assets shall be conducted by the authorization to the Chairman by the Board of Directors in accordance with the authorization limits of the Company.
Chapter 3 Related Party Transactions
Article 13:	When the Company engages in any acquisition or disposal of assets from or to a related party, in addition to ensuring that the necessary resolutions are

	adopted and the reasonableness of the transaction terms is appraised in compliance with the provisions of the Chapter 2 and this Chapter, if the transaction amount reaches 10 percent or more of the Company's total assets, the Company shall also obtain an appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 2. The calculation of the transaction amount referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be made in accordance with Article 10.
Article 14:	When the Company intends to acquire or dispose of real property or right-of-use assets thereof from or to a related party, or when it intends to acquire or dispose of assets other than real property or right-of-use assets thereof from or to a related party and the transaction amount reaches 20 percent or more of paid-in capital, 10 percent or more of the Company's total assets, or NT$300 million or more, except in trading of domestic government bonds or bonds under repurchase and resale agreements, or subscription or repurchase of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises, the Company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract or make a payment until the following matters have been approved by the Board of Directors: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The purpose, necessity and anticipated benefit of the acquisition or disposal of assets. 2. The reason for choosing the related party as a trading counterparty. 3. With respect to the acquisition of real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party, information regarding appraisal of the reasonableness of the preliminary transaction terms in accordance with Article 15 through 17. 4. The date and price at which the related party originally acquired the real property, the original trading counterparty, and that trading counterparty's relationship to the Company and the related party. 5. Monthly cash flow forecasts for the year commencing from the anticipated month of signing of the contract, and evaluation of the necessity of the transaction, and reasonableness of the funds utilization.

6. An appraisal report from a professional appraiser or a CPA's opinion obtained in compliance with the preceding article.

7. Restrictive covenants and other important stipulations associated with the transaction.

The calculation of the transaction amounts referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be made in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 28 herein, and "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. Items that have been approved by the Board of Directors need not be counted toward the transaction amount.

With respect to the types of transactions listed below, when to be conducted between the Company and its parent or subsidiaries, or between its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, the Company's Board of Directors may pursuant to Article 12, delegate the Chairman to decide such matters when the transaction is within a certain amount and have the decisions subsequently proposed to and ratified by the next Board of Directors meeting:

1. Acquisition or disposal of equipment or right-of-use assets thereof held for business use.
2. Acquisition or disposal of real property right-of-use assets held for business use.

When a matter is proposed for discussion by the Board of Directors pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article, the independent Directors' opinions specifically expressing dissent or reservations about any matter shall be included in the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting.

The matters for which paragraph 1 requires submitted to the Board of Directors for a resolution shall first be approved by more than half of all audit committee members. If the approval by more than half of all audit committee members is not obtained, the aforesaid matter may be implemented if approved by more than two-thirds of all Directors, and the

	resolution of the Audit Committee shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting.
Article 15:	The Company shall evaluate the reasonableness of the transaction costs by the following means if it intends to acquire real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Based upon the related party's transaction price plus necessary interest on funding and the costs to be duly borne by the buyer. "Necessary interest on funding" is imputed as the weighted average interest rate on borrowing in the year the company purchases the property; provided, it may not be higher than the maximum non-financial industry lending rate announced by the Ministry of Finance. 2. Total loan value appraisal from a financial institution where the related party has previously created a mortgage on the property as security for a loan; provided, the actual cumulative amount loaned by the financial institution shall have been 70 percent or more of the financial institution's appraised loan value of the property and the period of the loan shall have been 1 year or more. However, this shall not apply where the financial institution is a related party of one of the trading counterparties. Where land and structures thereupon are combined as a single property purchased or leased in one transaction, the transaction costs for the land and the structures may be separately appraised in accordance with either of the means listed in the preceding paragraph. When acquiring real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party, the Company shall evaluate the cost of the real property or right-of-use assets thereof in accordance with the preceding two paragraphs and shall also engage a CPA to review the evaluation and render a specific opinion.
Article 16:	Where the Company acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party and one of the following circumstances exists, the acquisition shall be conducted in accordance with Article 14, and Article 15 does not apply:

	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The related party acquired the real property or right-of-use assets thereof through inheritance or as a gift.2. More than 5 years have elapsed from the time the related party signed the contract to obtain the real property or right-of-use assets thereof to the signing date for the current transaction.3. The real property is acquired through signing of a joint development contract with the related party, or through engaging a related party to build real property, either on the company's own land or on rented land.4. The real property right-of-use assets for business use are acquired by the Company with its parent or subsidiaries, or by its subsidiaries in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital.
Article 17:	When the results of the Company's appraisal conducted in accordance with paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 of Article 15 are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the matter shall be handled in compliance with Article 18. However, where the following circumstances exist, and objective evidence has been submitted and specific opinions on reasonableness have been obtained from a professional real property appraiser and a CPA, Article 16 shall not apply: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Where the related party acquired undeveloped land or leased land for development, it may submit proof of compliance with one of the following conditions:<ol style="list-style-type: none">(1) Where undeveloped land is appraised in accordance with the means in the preceding two articles, and structures according to the related party's construction cost plus reasonable construction profit are valued in excess of the actual transaction price. The "Reasonable construction profit" shall be deemed the average gross operating profit margin of the related party's construction division over the most recent 3 years or the gross profit margin for the construction industry for the most recent period as announced by the Ministry of Finance, whichever is lower.

	(2) Transactions by unrelated parties within the preceding year involving other floors of the same property or neighboring or closely valued parcels of land, where the land area and transaction terms are similar after calculation of reasonable price discrepancies in floor or area land prices in accordance with standard property market sale or leasing practices. 2. Where the Company acquiring real property, or obtaining real property right-of-use assets through leasing, from a related party provides evidence that the terms of the transaction are similar to the terms of transactions for the acquisition of neighboring or closely valued parcels of land of a similar size by unrelated parties within the preceding year. Transactions for neighboring or closely valued parcels of land in the preceding paragraph in principle refers to parcels on the same or an adjacent block and within a distance of no more than 500 meters or parcels close in publicly announced current value; transaction for similarly sized parcels in principle refers to transactions completed by unrelated parties for parcels with a land area of no less than 50 percent of the property in the planned transaction; within the preceding year refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the acquisition of the real property or right-of-use assets thereof.
Article 18:	Where the Company acquires real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party and the results of appraisals conducted in accordance with the preceding three Articles are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the following steps shall be taken: 1. A special earnings reserve shall be set aside in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 41 of the Securities and Exchange Act against the difference between the real property or right-of-use assets thereof transaction price and the appraised cost, and such difference may not be distributed or used for capital increase by issuance of new shares. Where the Company uses the equity method to account for its investment in another company, then the special earnings reserve called for under paragraph 1 of Article 41 of

	the Securities and Exchange Act shall be set aside pro rata in a proportion consistent with the share of public company's equity stake in the other company. 2. Audit Committee shall supervise the Company's execution of the aforesaid matter. 3. Actions taken pursuant to the preceding two subparagraphs shall be reported to a shareholders meeting, and the details of the transaction shall be disclosed in the annual report and any investment prospectus. The Company having set aside a special earnings reserve under the preceding paragraph may not utilize the special earnings reserve until it has recognized a loss on decline in market value of the assets it purchased or leased at a premium, or they have been disposed of, or the leasing contract has been terminated, or adequate compensation has been made, or the status quo ante has been restored, or there is other evidence confirming that there was nothing unreasonable about the transaction, and the securities competent authority has given its consent. When the Company obtains real property or right-of-use assets thereof from a related party, it shall also comply with the preceding two paragraphs if there is other evidence indicating that the acquisition was not an arm's length transaction.
Chapter 4 Engaging in Derivatives Trading
Article 19:	Any derivatives trading of the Company shall be conducted in accordance with the "Procedures for Engaging in Derivatives Transactions" of the Company, and when doing so, the Company shall pay attention to issues of risk management and auditing to fulfill the Internal Control System of the Company.
Chapter 5 Mergers and Consolidations, Splits, Acquisitions, and Assignment of Shares
Article 20:	The Company that conducts a merger, demerger, acquisition, or assignment of shares shall, prior to convening the Board of Directors to resolve on the

	matter, engage a CPA, attorney, or securities underwriter to give an opinion on the reasonableness of the share exchange ratio, acquisition price, or distribution of cash or other property to shareholders, and propose the opinion to the Board of Directors for deliberation and approval. However, the requirement of obtaining an aforesaid opinion on reasonableness issued by an expert may be exempted in the case of a merger by the company of a subsidiary in which it directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the issued shares or authorized capital, and in the case of a merger between subsidiaries in which the Company directly or indirectly holds 100 percent of the respective subsidiaries' issued shares or authorized capital.
Article 21:	The Company participating in a merger, demerger, or acquisition shall prepare a public report to shareholders detailing important contractual content and matters relevant to the merger, demerger, or acquisition prior to the shareholders meeting, together with the expert opinion referred to in Article 20 when sending notice of the shareholders meeting, for reference in deciding whether to approve the merger, demerger, or acquisition. Provided, where a provision of another act exempts a company from convening a shareholders meeting to approve the merger, demerger, or acquisition, this restriction shall not apply. Where the shareholders meeting of any one of the companies participating in a merger, demerger, or acquisition fails to convene or pass a resolution due to lack of a quorum, insufficient votes, or other legal restriction, or the proposal is rejected by the shareholders meeting, the Company shall immediately publicly explain the reason, the follow-up measures, and the preliminary date of the next shareholders meeting.
Article 22:	When the Company participates in a merger, demerger, or acquisition, it shall convene a board of directors meeting and shareholders meeting on the same date on which the other companies participating in the merger, demerger, or acquisition convene their board of directors and shareholders meeting to resolve matters relevant to the merger, demerger, or acquisition, unless another act provides otherwise or the securities competent authority

	is notified in advance of extraordinary circumstances and grants consent. The Company and other companies participating in an assignment of shares shall call their respective board of directors meeting on the same day, unless another act provides otherwise or the securities competent authority is notified in advance of extraordinary circumstances and grants consent. When the Company participates in a merger, demerger, acquisition, or assignment of shares, it shall prepare a full written record of the following information and retain the record for 5 years for reference. In addition, the information set out in the subparagraphs 1 and 2 of the following paragraph shall be reported in the prescribed format and via the Internet-based information system to the securities competent authority for recordation within two days commencing immediately from the date of passage of a resolution by the Board of Directors. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
